

134 South Street WHITE GUM VALLEY, WA

MID-CENTURY MASTERPIECE

This mid-century masterpiece will transport you back to the 60's.

Stepping foot inside this gem is like stepping back in time. In keeping with its vintage, the 1960's Ventura home has retained a raft of original features, many of which are in pristine condition.

When built in 1959, the home embraced all the modern design features of its time. Now over 60 years later they're still in vogue and remain a credit to the one family who have lived in and loved this home and still managed to preserve it along the way.

Set on a 673sqm landholding, this is not your typical home, rather its a celebration of family living and entertaining.

Lavishly proportioned living spaces are a highlight, all harmoniously connected by exquisite terrazzo flooring. The ceilings soar high and are adorned with intricate geometric desi
